

Cycle Zydeco Scavenger Hunt 2019

2019.04.25 - Saturday

Turn in these clues at the the Scavenger Hunt Desk at Bouligny Plaza in downtown New Iberia next to the CZ bar between 3p - 6p on Saturday.

CLUE	LOCATION	ANSWER	TICKETS
Take a picture with me and my oak tree at the most visited spot in St. Martinsville.	St. Martinsville		1
Red's Levee Bar is located in the Louisiana community named after this Louisiana State symbol. Bonus: What's Red's last name?	Red's Levee Bar		1
Take a pic at the resting place of the legendary blues accordion player Clifton Chenier	Loreauville		1
This town has gone through several names over the years, Dugasville, Piocouville, Loreauville. What was the name the Acadians gave it when they arrived, and how does that name translate in English?	Loreauville		1
Despite the vast fields surrounding Loreauville, the town is a boat building capital and you can find large boats all around the world. Take a picture of a large boat.	Loreauville		1
It is rumored that the term "Zydeco" is a corruption of this French word for a vegetable or legume.			1
Behind the Tensas Tower in downtown New Iberia is the site of a sunken boat that from the Civil War area. What is the name of this boat?	New Iberia		1
Celebrate National Pecan month with Cane River Pecans in New Iberia. They are giving away samples at their store for Cycle Zydeco participants. What is the number of their street car?	New Iberia		1
This New Iberia native gained world fame after creating an art series based on the Cajun legend called the loup-garou . Name this artist. Bonus: What was the name of the real life dog who inspired these paintings?	New Iberia, Bayou Teche Museum		1
This historic house museum was a sugar plantation before the Civil War. Bonus: What makes this historic house collections so unique and why?	New Iberia		1